

I received notice from the Indiana State Attorney General that the Consumer Bankers Association is challenging the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law under the guise of the established business relationship exemption.

Please keep the law as it is. Many of us are very informed consumers and we know where to go to get the services we need and want.

We highly value the respite from unwanted phone calls since Indiana put the telephone privacy law in place.

Respectfully,

Alan Weinacht

Muncie, IN